Journalist/Editor

Freelance

January 1992 – Present (25 years 2 months)

My work has appeared in a variety of media outlets covering everything from sports to business, investigative news to profiles, including the Chico News & Review, the San Francisco Examiner, Oroville Mercury-Register, the Times Tribune, The Pacific Sun, 60 Minutes, ABC News, CNBC and PBS. I currently write a monthly column in NorthBay biz Magazine called Only In Main as well as monthly features and investigative pieces.

Associate Editor

DealFlow Media

June 2010 – April 2013 (2 years 11 months)

I covered a range of areas for DealFlow including micro and small cap stocks and finance, registered offerings, IPOs, reverse mergers, private placements, SPACs and PIPE finance on an international basis. Because of our online structure and website, we also functioned as a quasi-wire service, posting both short items and long-form stories on a daily basis. The breath of our work included in-depth financial journalism mixed with a healthy dose of investigative work. In the past I also covered distressed debt and commercial real estate as well as provided input into company conference sessions and speakers.

Editor/Senior Reporter

Crittenden Research

2004 – 2009 (5 years)

At Crittenden I reported on a variety of areas in commercial real estate including coverage of REITs, private and public equity investments, deal coverage and commercial real estate finance. I covered the meltdown following the credit freeze and edited the company's flagship publication, the Crittenden Report. I also provided input for company conferences including panel topics and speaker/moderator choices.
